Mike Haas, back, passes out hymn books to people who turned out for Saturday's "Public Square Biblical Rosary Prayer Rally" in Gallipolis City Park. The event, which took place by the gazebo, invited people of all faiths to "answer a call for prayer and sacrifice in reparation, to pray the rosary for world peace, to stop the onslaught of ISIS and to save our country from immorality and secularism." Also pictured is Father Thomas Hamm, of St. Louis Catholic Church, talking with one of the prayer event organizers, Paul Sebastian.
